International Women's Day: Virtual Volunteer Hour
12 PM - 1 PM EST | Register here

Join us for a meaningful volunteer experience designed to create connection and collaboration as we elevate the conversation around women navigating homelessness in our community and bring inspiration to women in Heading Home shelters.

Together, we will learn more about the Cliff Effect and cascading impacts on women and #ChooseToChallenge misguided stereotypes about homelessness.

Volunteers will have an opportunity to learn more about our work and other ways to lift up other women.

If you have any questions about this International Women's Day volunteer experience, please contact Martha Buckley at MBuckley@headinghomeinc.org.
